ncsI celebrates National Book Week at New Literacy College

The New Literacy College at 9 Mile was fortunate to have ncsI at the School to speak about kids savings account to end the National Book Week on Friday 07th August, 2021.

The week-long activities ended with ncsI holding awareness sessions with the children on the importance of reading and writing and how it can help them make sound financial decisions in the future.

The Society was invited by the College Founder and Director Ms. Nana Tom to speak to the children about the importance of reading, writing and saving money during the COVID-19 pandemic.

In its efforts to promote and encourage a savings mindset at an early age, ncsI took the opportunity to chat with the youngsters on the importance of having a savings account.

The private school has 41 students from Kindergarten to Elementary Two (2) and Ms. Tom said since the establishment of the school in 2017, no organization has ever visited.

"ncsI is the first organization to visit our school, gift and celebrate with these marginalized children in the heart of 9 Mile settlement," she said.

"I thank ncsI for making time available to be part of our children's celebration.

"We communicate ncsI activities and results"

Bais Introduces ncsL Savings to Mantas Rugby 7's Players

Life after rugby can be challenging as players try to shift their focus to self-sustaining activities after sports.

For those with no form of employment, they must have savings set aside to support themselves and their family financially once their rugby days are done.

That is why Mantas Rugby 7's team in Port Moresby, decided to better prepare their players by choosing to save with ncsL.

Through senior player Constantine Bais, 12 players now have savings accounts which they can utilize to support them financially when they run into unplanned injury, need new sporting gears, or save for future needs.

Bais who mentors and teaches them the importance of setting aside savings, said most players are in their early 20's which was a good time to start saving.

He continues to actively encourage players to consider life after rugby and saving money now will ensure a better transition back into their society knowing they are able to support themselves.

Mantas has produced some of the best players in the likes of Emil Latumahina, Debe Keith Tore, Shallendra Birney and Junias Sabatha who went on to represent the National rugby 7's team, Pukpuks and also the Capital Rugby Union.

ncsl writes more than K1M in SME Loan ncsl recognizes the important role that Small to Medium Enterprises (SMEs) play in the development of the country's economy which is the reason for the Society's offering of the SME loan facility.

Since the launching of its SME loan product, the Society has written over K1 Million in loans to members engaged in SME activities.

There has been an influx of SME loan applications coming through monthly which are subjected to the Society's guidelines on SME lending.

The requirements which members must meet to qualify for loans include a fully completed application Form along with Bank Statements, Business Registration Certificate, Tax identification Certificate, 2x valid ID Borrower Profile (Business Owner), Business Profile, Detailed Cash Flow Projections for the next 12 months and Proof of ownership of assets to be pledged as collateral/security for new start-ups.

Manager Lending, Bernard Geita, mentioned that for existing businesses, in addition to the above requirements, they must also provide Financial Statements for the prior two (2) years.

The Society can process SME loans between K1, 000.00 and K300, 000.00 with an upfront 30 percent equity requirement.

Members who do not meet the Society's SME loan requirements can obtain personal loans up to five (5) times their savings and these are all subject to lending terms and conditions.

First, I applied for 1:1 Loan and the loan was approved. I faithfully settled my loan repayments without delays. I applied for second loan on 1:2 and it rejected. Why it was rejected letting down a faithful client like me?
What are some of the requirments which I haven't met?

Regards,
Langie Rato

Thank you team for your very efficient assistance today. My poro card got locked during the weekend because I mistakenly used my other bank card's PIN. I contacted the e-banking support team and they sent me the form to complete. I sent back the completed form at 11:59 am and by 12:15 pm, just 16 minutes later, was informed that my card was cleared to use. All done over email with minimum fuss, and Keep up the great work team and thank you Stephanie.
